

K-LOVE radio in my area is the only family-friendly programming that I feel is available. K-LOVE has impacted my life drastically and it would be doing the community a huge disservice to discontinue their programming. The programming on this station has a positive and encouraging impact on our community.